April 15, 1992 - March 3, 2017

Roberto Daniel "Danny" Garcia, was born April 15, 1992. Danny left this life way to soon on March 3, 2017. He was born to Melanie Morales and Roberto Garcia in Odessa TX.

Danny spent his childhood in New Mexico and shortly after high school he returned to Texas and met the love of his life. He built a family with Sandra Mendoza, Jacob Mendoza, and Caleb Garcia.

Acknowledging the miracle of adoptions, readjusting families and Danny's loving nature he has left behind enormous family connections. He has left behind Sandra Mendoza, Jacob Mendoza, and Caleb Garcia, his mother Melanie Morales (husband Aaron), father Roberto Garcia (wife Andrea), his sister Jasmin Baca, his brothers Sean Devine, Michael, Joe, Robert, Eric, and Chris Garcia, his Grandmas Joann Clifford and Bea Lewis, his grandpa Curtis Lewis, his uncles Roy Garcia, Eric Zamudio (wife Roxanne), Ernest Zamudio (wife Tish), and Brandon Clifford, his aunts Maribel Garcia, Lisa Williams (husband Billy), and Lena Garcia, as well as nephews, cousins, great aunts and uncles and many many more. He has also left behind many friends near and far that considered him family. He is preceded in death by his grandpa Merle Clifford, his uncles Gilbert Garcia and Efrian Zamudio, and his cousin Cody Robinette.

His death is a huge loss to all of us, but there are so many memories. Danny would say, "no tears, share memories and smile".

Dan Dan I think of you often. I miss you every day. Especially when things get rough because you were always the one who made me feel like everything was going to be alright. U became a dad and I never got to meet him or see you in your best life. I met you in 6th grade and I've loved you ever since. You were my best friend we talked all the time and when I was told u left, God broke a lot of hearts that day. But I find comfort knowing you will be waiting to greet me at those Golden Gates. I love u Dan Dan and thank you for being my best friend and guardian angel.
