“ Robert was a traveler, he loved to visit historical places and move from place to place. There was one thing I loved about Robert, he always had a smile that I will never forget. ❤️ R.I.P. brother.

My dear Aunt Josephine, cousins and their family, there are no words that suffice at this time of grief. It must be the brother-in-arms kinship I feel in addition to Robert being my cousin. I too loved the happiness his smile radiated and am glad he traveled like he wanted. You have your wings now, sweet cousin. Fly free without earthly cares, and we'll see one another again. Love, Rosalinda
