Rhonda, I just saw the obituary for your father in the paper. I’m so sorry for your loss. We have another funeral service that same exact time on Saturday. Please except our condolences.

My name is Richard Ronald Hagan. I went by Ronnie in Pleasanton High School. Rodger was by best friend in high school, and I’m saddened to find this. Wish I had checked several years ago.

If anyone reads this, I would like an email address to contact his wife if she’s still alive.

My birthday was also in August, the 29th, born 1942. My dad worked in the oil field and we moved to Pleasanton in the summer of 1955 I believe. Right in the worst of the 1950s drought.
