“ He took care of his mother in her later years. I would call him often after her death. He was always willing to share his activities with me. Had enjoyable discussions. Miss you cousin!

“ I knew Peanut from the neighborhood and him coming into Cliffs Feed Store back in the day. He was always happy to see me and very kind. There wasn't an unkind thing about him as far as I ever knew. Such a kind and gentle soul. He is and will always be missed. RIP brother. Say hi to Vernon.
