“ My name is Tasha Bond and I met Mr. Rodriguez when I first started at Methodist downtown. He and my husband of 25yrs. both found out about their cancers at the same time, both liver stage 4 I believe. This breaks my heart I was cheering him on and anything I could do to make his day better I would like he needed a cigarette one night and I took him out and we just enjoyed the fresh air and talked. He loved his Wife soo much and she stayed by his side til the end. I pray she is ok because I lost my husband 1/31/2026 and I wouldn't wish this pain on anyone but I haven't been at work and he was on my mind I always asked if he been here and I saw this post tonight and I just cried. I'm praying for his family and there are really no words to say is I love you all and thank you for sharing him with us over at Methodist
