“ Oh Rudy.. I have fun memories of growing up with you and your brothers, from trip to the beach to just hanging out at the house! You always made me laugh. This is hard to accept but I pray that you are at peace, with no more suffering. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ He was my friend, he was so funny, we shared every year a two hundred dollar square for the Super Bowl and we never won a penny over a ten year period. We were to stupid to quit. Rudy and I ran the DFW A terminal bag room together as Crew Chiefs, I did the manning he was outside Crew Chief doing what he did best bull shitting with the guys. The best memory was when the two of us fought and saved jobs together when the company wanted to cut heads. I have a hole in my heart. Thanks Rudy my life was a little better with you in it.
