“ I was there when you met my sister, who you would marry. Y'all met at a club and you asked her to dance. I remember thinking, "This guy sure does smile a lot." I came to enjoy that smile. I knew whenever we met, we would laugh and have a great time. That was guaranteed.

Another memory...y'all came to visit us in California and suddenly some Cinnabon's we had bought started to disappear. I was accused of eating them, but you stepped up and admitted that was your midnight snack.

We always had fun and shared laughs and and beers.

I heard its going to be cold at your funeral tomorrow. But I know your heart and personality will still warm us all.

God Bless you my friend.
