

Roger Hernandez

December 6, 1913 - December 8, 2007

Roger “Azteca” Hernandez, born in Monterrey, Mexico on December 6, 1913, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, December 8, 2007 at the age of 94. He loved and participated in baseball, basketball and coaching. He retired from Jax Beer Co. and Halo Distributing Company after 50 years of service ranging from route sales to supervisory work and coordinated social functions with all of the west side social clubs. His greatest love was his wife Josefina of 59 years. Their social calendar was always full. They enjoyed traveling, dancing, and spending time with their family and friends. Azteca had a wonderful life helping not just his family but anybody needing a helping hand. He will truly be missed. He is preceded in death by his wife Josefina Hernandez, son Roger Hernandez, Jr., parents Carlota and Enrique Hernandez, and brothers Enrique, Rudy, Raul, and Ruben Hernandez. Roger is survived by his beloved son Robert “Bobby” Hernandez and wife Linda of Corpus Christi, children Roger L. Hernandez of California, Leena M. Klaker and husband Chris of Corpus Christi, Robert B. Hernandez of San Antonio, grandchildren Josephine, Ethan Alejandro, and Sierra; brother Joe Hernandez and wife Aurora, and other loving family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

AM

“ A toda la familia Hernandez mis mas profundas condolencias. Yo conocía a Roger cuando yo comenze en el Canal 41-KWEX 1963 y él iba en representación de la Jax-- fuimos buenos amigos y elevo mis oraciones al Creador por su alma buena--Que Dios ben

Andr s Ricardo Mor n - December 11, 2007 at 12:00 AM