

Roger C Johnson

April 24, 1943 - March 8, 2015

Roger C. Johnson Danny Boy was born in San Antonio on April 24, 1943 and passed away on March 08, 2015.

He accepted Christ at an early age, attending St. Paul United Methodist Church. He attended Cuney Elementary, Douglas Jr. High and graduated from St. Peter Claver Academy and attended St. Phillips Junior College.

He started working at an early age in food and catering industry. Then was employed at Southwest Research Institute as a Research Technician, Assistant Manager of the Plaza Club, advertising and sales at KAPE Radio Station and SNAP Community Newspaper. He worked for over 25 years at The Dominion Country Club, assisting his brother Nathan all areas, working his way up to managing the Mixed Grill and The Men's 19th Hole. He loved managing The 19th Hole and the members loved him. He never met a stranger. He retired from there in October 2011 due to health and had a double lung transplant in February 2012. We had 3 more wonderful years with him, due to his determination and the wonderful care from University Hospital and his lung team of Dr. Luis Angel and Dr. Debbie Levine, and all the other doctors and technicians and his beloved friend and advisor Dr. John Calhoon. He loved to cook for his wife Mary and step-daughter Tracy, watch sports on TV, especially the SPURS, call his brother and friends daily he could talk and his monthly lunch with the guys.

He was preceded in death by his only child Craig Johnson, father Nathan W. Johnson Jr. and mother Doris.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 42 years, Mary, step-daughter Tracy Tamblin, sister Hazel Russell and her husband Clyde Russell, brother Nathan Johnson III, grandchildren Craig Jr. and Brittany, nieces Toni Grey, Kelli Russell, and Anita Collins, nephews Nathan Johnson IV and Orlando Johnson, and great nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and countless friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, March 13, 2015 at 3 P.M. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. With a reception to follow at The Men's 19th Hole at the Dominion Country Club in San Antonio, Tx.
