

Roger D. Maley

February 20, 1941 - January 7, 2023

Roger D. Maley entered heaven on the morning of January 7th, 2023. He enjoyed a blessed life of 81 years, born on February 20, 1941, in Kenedy, Texas to Dolores Fonseca Martinez Fischer. He was surrounded by loving half-siblings, Ferdinand Fischer, Augustina Mendoza, Ted Quinonez (living), Aurelio Quinonez, Emma Lee Zepeda, Esteban Fischer, and his full sibling Maria Elena Torralva-Alonso (living). Protecting and keeping the family ties was very important to Roger and even more so as he created his own family. From teenage sweethearts to life-long soul mates, Roger was only 14 when he cast his eyes on Flora Villagran and they fell in love. At the age of 17, Roger proposed to Flo, and they married on August 3, 1958. It was love at first sight, best-friends for life with laughter as their foundation. Married for 64 years, Roger cherished Flo and stayed true to his vow of “until death do us part”. They started their tree of life together in San Antonio, Tx and later a family; a strong vine yielding much fruit from three loving daughters. Roger was a devoted and dedicated father to Veronica Delgado married to Max, Annette Canales married to David, and Barbara Winslow-White married to Eric. Roger, known as Papa, was proud of and nurtured his eight grandchildren Maxine Delgado Biggs, Monica Delgado Hinkle, Alyssa Canales Ralston, Sarah Canales Oviatt, Roger David Canales, Erika Winslow, Morgan Winslow, and Kevin Winslow. Roger was also blessed with eight great grandchildren whom he so adored. Relationships were equally important to Roger as many friends, even from childhood, remained by his side as life-long companions.

Roger was a successful proprietor and entrepreneur in the construction and restaurant industry, land- owner and home developer in south Texas, and a leader and role model for his community and family. Roger enjoyed the outdoors and was an avid hunter and fisherman. Roger, a man of strong faith, has laid a cornerstone for us all to follow and that can never be broken. Roger, we love you and we thank you for all the times you have made us laugh, taught us with patience and kindness, guided us through troubles and provided us strength and wisdom. May the fruit of your life shine brightly through our hearts for all the world to see and remember you by until we may be with you again.

“ Annette and David,

I wish that I could have been there in person to give you a hug and to express my condolences. God bless you both and know that I'm praying for you and your family. I miss you both greatly and miss our families being able to spend time together. Look forward to our next opportunity to get together.

“ I don't know where to start when you have such a great pain in your heart... I had the pleasure and pleasure of living with Mr. Roger and Mrs. Flor these last few months. And it hurts and I don't know how to assimilate his departure, I don't know how one gets used to not seeing a person who marked his life before and after. I don't know how to assimilate that he was no longer able to see my son in person. That every day he asked me how my son was. I would have liked to give him another handshake, say hello again and smile at each other. I miss living with Him, seeing each other every day and talking, I miss those "just now", that list on the boat that we were adding plans to. It hurts me because in this time they became my family and it's gone. Rest in peace Mr Roger. Only his cycle was closed in this life. But we will meet again with God our father.

Socrates, you gave my father so much joy and attention. We can't thank you enough for all you did for him.
