“ Uncle Rol was one of those special people that everyone wanted to be Neer. He was someone you could never forget and will always be with me in my thoughts of family. I do know that he made everyone he knew, feel that they were special, which only magnifies how special he truly was. I just wanted him to know that I have not forgotten him or our very special Aunt Clarite. Still thinking of you. ”

“ We will miss you Uncle Rol. Thank you so much for the great talks and welcoming us into your home on our couple trips to Texas. So glad you got to meet Heather and wish we could have made 1 more trip sooner that we would have brought the boys. Sending prayers to all of our Neer family in Texas. We love you all.

“ What a terrific uncle! We will always treasure those precious times with Uncle Rol when we visited San Antonio. His jokes and quick smiles will never be forgotten! The boys still talk about the special "Uncle Rol" breakfast of bacon and eggs fried in deep bacon fat! When they cook eggs, they still call them "Uncle Rol eggs". Each call to him at holidays and birthdays was memorable. Our love to Clarite, Linda, Roger, Julie, and all the Neer Family. "Timmie" and Deb Nier, Davis Junction, Illinois
