“ To the family, my heartfelt condolences on Tia's passing. I would like to share a story with you all. My mom, Mariana Flores, loved Tia Mana. Her and Tia would spend hours talking on the phone. When mom would talk to Tia, you would think that they had not talked in years but they had just spoken the week before!!

One of my favorite memories, is when my family and I took Tia Mana and mom on a trip to the coast. We took them out on the boat, got them both to fish, went to the jetties where they sat enjoying the sound of the waves and visited downtown Corpus so they could see the statue of Selena. I have shared a few photos from the trip for you to enjoy.

Their laughter, their stories and spending the time with these two women was nothing short of AMAZING.

Tia, much love and may you rest in peace. My heart is filled knowing that you and mom are sitting somewhere, sharing stories and laughing now and forever.
