

Romolo Cortez Garcia III

June 13, 1969 - August 24, 2025

Romolo Garcia III, affectionately known by many as Flaco and Mr. Green Beans, was born on June 13, 1969 in FT. Rucker, Alabama and passed away unexpectedly on August 24, 2025, at the age of 56. He is survived by his loving father, Romolo Garcia II, and his sister Laura Caza (Rodney). He also leaves behind his three children—Romolo Garcia IV, Raymundo Garcia, and Alexis Garcia—whom he loved deeply, even though life kept them apart. Romolo was a proud grandfather to Albernica and Alijah, who brought him joy even from afar. He was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Pura C. Garcia; his grandparents Romolo and Romana Garcia, and Manuel and Roberta Cortez; along with several aunts, uncles, and cousins who welcomed him with open arms. Romolo was a man of many passions and talents. A true jokester, he had an infectious sense of humor and a heart full of generosity. He was a lover of all kinds of music, a talented cook, and a proud Harley rider who found freedom on the open road.

Romolo was also deeply artistic and had a natural gift for drawing. His creativity was a quiet but powerful part of who he was—a reflection of the depth, sensitivity, and imagination he carried within. He expressed himself not only through art, but also in the way he showed love to others. He lived life fully and gave freely. A hard worker who would give the shirt off his back to anyone in need, Romolo cherished his friends and family above all else. His spirit, laughter, and love will be missed more than words can express by all who knew and loved him.
