“ We were the Holtkamp’s neighbors in Hidden Creek. Our daughters were best friends. We could not have asked for more genuine and caring neighbors. Ron was a quiet but sincere man. Family was incredibly important to him. My husband, Manuel passed away 3 months ago. It has been very painful for us. I know what Bonnie, Renee and Rachel are going through. My prayers for peace and strength are with them.

I was always aware that through Ron’s quiet and sincere, wall was a brilliant man. I was in awe to know that he was the Comptroller for USAA, it was such an honor to know him and be his neighbor. Gone too soon, but not forgotten...
