

Ronald E. Gloyd

July 28, 1936 - August 26, 2015

Ronald E. Gloyd went to be with the Lord on August 27, 2015 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on July 28, 1936 in Plymouth, Massachusetts to Lester Charles Gloyd and Cora Pierce Gloyd.

He joined the Air Force in 1956 and met his future wife Minnie Flores while attending basic training. His son Ron and daughter Jean were born during the four years he served his country as a jet engine mechanic. He then settled in San Antonio teaching small engine repair and welding for 26 years to students in the MANPOWER program and at Leal Middle School in the Harlandale Independent School District. Ronald actively served in various positions at Our Lady of the Angels Catholic Church and provided food for those in need in the community. His positive attitude and willingness to help others made him "a doer, and not just a hearer, of the Word."

Mr. Gloyd is survived by his loving wife, Minnie Flores Gloyd; daughter, Jean Gonzalez Geronimo; son, Ron Gloyd Kim; brother, Robert Gloyd Marilyn; grandchildren, Richard, Christian and Jackie Gloyd, Faith Toth, Haley Gonzalez; great-granddaughter, Kyleigh Toth.
