

Ronald "Ronnie" Clemence Schuh

June 21, 1956 - October 19, 2023

Ronald (Ronnie) Clemence Schuh, born June 21, 1956 passed away October 19, 2023 peacefully at home in San Antonio, Texas surrounded by his family. Ronald is preceded in death by his amazing wife of 41 years Brenda Joyce Schuh, his parents Clemence and Meta Schuh, Sisters Dorthy (Kalisky), Corine (Phillips) and Lorine (Schultz). Ronald is survived by his three wonderful daughters Tracie Joyce Schuh (wife Samantha), Kelly Helena Siegler (husband Neal), Lisa Dorine Schuh and his 8 adventurous Grandchildren Isaiah, Hailey, Allison, Anabelle, Madelyn, Spencer, Amari and Michael.

Ronnie was the Superintendent of Bexar County Public works for 32 years before retiring to spend time with family and go fishing. He dedicated many years to the San Antonio Stockshow and Rodeo on the Rodeo Contestant Hospitality Committee becoming a Life Member of the San Antonio Stockshow and Rodeo. He supported the youth of agriculture with Helotes 4-H and O'Connor FFA as Board of Director and Swine Superintendent for over 25 years.

As a teenager Ronnie started with his first band Tune Twisters and then went on to form several other bands known as Sideline, Smokey Mountain, San Antonio Combo, San Antonio Country and the San Antonio Dutchmen with his best friends Donald Schmidtenky, Johnny Schultz, Freddy Faulk, and Glenn Muenchow. He performed all over San Antonio in every dance hall around. He played many weddings, family reunions, festivals, and New Braunfels Wurstfest. Ronnie was the lead guitar and vocals and could play any instrument including the drums. His "groupies" will miss him greatly.

His greatest times were spent in Rockport, Texas with his friends, family, and fishing with his girls. He was known as "Stingray" with his fishing buddies "Keeper Boys" (Justin Adams and Neal Siegler) and his grandson "Shrimp Boy" (Isaiah Schuh). He also enjoyed teaching his Jersey Boy son in law, Neal, all about ranching and how to be a Cowboy.

His friends and family will continue his legacy hosting Ronnie's Annual Sausage Fest at the end of hunting season. He made sure in the last week that his kids knew how to make his famous beans, dried sausage, and BBQ sauce. They spent the weekend at his house cooking while he coached Neal and Cory about smoking meats to perfection and writing down his recipes.

Our family would like to thank the staff at the START Center, our nurses Melissa and Jennifer, and Dr. Prathibha Surapaneni for all of their wonderful care and compassion they showed our Father.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Helotes 4-H Club and O'Connor FFA.

“ Thought I posted before but don't see it. I remember Ronnie from Zion. He was a few years younger than I was, but I always think of him as a fun guy, easy going, a musician.

“ I remember Ronnie from growing up at Zion. We had a kinship as both of us are Ronnies. He was a few years younger than I was but he was always positive and funny and a musician. Condolences to the family at his passing. I posted a couple of pictures I found. One is of a group retreat and the other two from a Lutheran Coronation Ball where he was an escort. Hope they are visible.

“ Being one of the Lieck cousins and Ronnie being 2 months older than Gary we had so many great times. I loved listening to Ronnie play music and sing. He played for Robert and my wedding as well. I am so glad we had the cousins lunch a couple weeks ago out at your Dad's place and he was so happy that so many came. I will forever remember his smile that day. My prayers are with you all that you find comfort and peace that he is reunited with your mom. Love to all of you, Joyce

My first memory of Ronnie was of course, playing music together. Great vocals and guitar playing! Ronnie was probably the nicest guy that I could ever know, always smiling and enjoying life and the music he played! My condolences to everyone as Ronnie will definitely be missed! Truly an awesome musician and friend! RIP Ronnie, until we meet again!
