

Ronald (Ron) Avery Russell

November 3, 1954 - March 12, 2025

Ronald (Ron) Avery Russell, 70 years old, of Shavano Park, TX, passed away on March 12, 2025, peacefully at home.

Ron was born in Evansville, IN to Avery and Mary Jane Russell on November 3, 1954. Ron was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. Ron's life was marked by a deep passion for technology, craftsmanship, and sports.

Ron had a passion for music and singing. He was part of a church quartet for multiple years. Ron was an avid enthusiast of computers and technology. From a young age, he was fascinated by the inner workings of computers and spent countless hours learning, tinkering, and sharing his knowledge with others. He had a gift for problem solving and loved the challenge of making computers do things others thought impossible.

In addition to his love for technology, Ron was a skilled craftsman. He took great pride in making pens, each one a unique piece of art, crafted with patience and attention to detail. His love for creating beautiful, functional objects brought joy to many, and his pens became treasured keepsakes for those fortunate enough to receive them.

Ron was a man who also had a strong connection to sports. Ron was an active participant in various activities throughout his life. Whether it was playing a competitive game, coaching the kids, or simply enjoying a friendly match, his enthusiasm and sportsmanship were a source of inspiration to all who knew him.

Ron's legacy will live on through the many lives he touched with his kindness, intelligence, and dedication to his passions. He will be dearly missed by his family, friends, and all who have the privilege of knowing him.

Ron survived by his wife, Connie Russell, of Shavano Park, TX. His son Bill (Missy) Russell, daughter, Melinda (Dustin) Pottorff, daughter, Heather (Paul) Clayton Chambers, sister, Barbara (Joyce) Russell, nephew, Jon (Dawn) Russell, niece, Cheryl (Tom) Workman, along with 11 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his son, Pete Russell, sister, Carolyn Moerer, brother, Tom Russell, nephew, David Drake.

The family will have a small service at Fort Sam National Cemetery, Pavilion 1, on March 17th at 9am.
