“ When I joined the Woisin family many years ago. On several occasions I had the opportunity of talking to Ron. I found him to be a charming gentleman. I had the good fortune to have Ron and Charlotte visit us for a week a few years back. Tim and I had such a great time with them, we did not want them to leave. I know he will be missed by all who knew and loved him. May you rest in peace, Dear Ron.

“ Ron’s heart to serve others was HUGE! His wit and personality could brighten the darkest room. I truly enjoyed talking with Ron at Optimist International events/ meetings. Ron remains with us in our heart, in our thoughts, in the legacy of his family, and the work he did within the community. I am comforted that he is not in pain and lived a proud life. Charlotte, please continue to shine and ‘to be so strong that nothing can disturb your piece of mind.’
