He is preceded in death by his parents, Nicolas and Seferina Mesa Navarro; siblings, Eduardo Navarro, Maria Navarro, and Porfirio Navarro.

Roque is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Raquel J. “ It’s a little hard to say Mr. Roque or Mr. Navarro because I don’t think I’ve ever said those words. It’s always been in reference to your dad or just speaking with him directly. He just always felt like family. I believe we spent more time with y’all’s family than I did hanging out with my dad. There are so many memories but my favorite that still sticks clear my mind is of your dad outside cleaning the yellow tiles around the house and singing something in Spanish that I have no earthly idea what it was but it sounded so good and happy all the time.

He was such a wonderful and caring person and I always loved seeing him and y’all’s mom inseparable. Their bond was so strong and I loved that so much about them 💕

I feel blessed to of been able to see him a few weeks ago and to be able to give him a hug. He will be dearly missed.

May he rest in eternal peace until we see him again 🙏

“ Brenda, Brian, and I moved into our house November, 1977. Right off the bat Mr. and Mrs. Navarro and the kids made us feel like we'd been neighbors for years. Sometimes we might have a little breakdown in communication, but we both always got our message across. Almost daily we would yell across the backyard fence "Good Morning, how are you doing. Beautiful day!" Brenda and I think of them as our dad and mom. We are surely going to miss our neighbor, friend, and surrogate "dad". Beautiful Day, Mr. Navarro. You are in heaven, in GOD'S loving hands, reacquainted with your mom and dad, and all your siblings. May you rest in peace. Love you, Michael, Brenda, and Brian

Thank you for these beautiful words Mike. You are now in heaven, too soon, due to a tragedy. I'm so sorry. You are now in God's loving hands with our dad, reacquainted with your family and my dad, your neighbor, your surrogate dad. May you rest in peace. Love you, Rachel Perkins

“ My favorite memory of Mr.Navarro is his love and smile he expressed for his wife, his daughter Rachel, Rodney and his grandchildren. I enjoyed watching him at the river holding his wife's hand as they sat near the water in peace together. He and his wife were like 2 peas in a pod. I loved all the stories Rach would share about her parents together. I love that my bestfriend Rachel talked so kind and proud of her dad. He is the dad that many girls wished for including myself. We will miss you Mr. Navarro ❤️

“ I have so many great memories of my dad. When I was little I remember holding his hand and my moms while walking and jumping over curbs. I remember laying on a cot looking up at the sky while he and my mom sat in their chairs enjoying the evening and waiting for the ice cream man to drive by. I remember him wetting the tile floor on the back porch so I could slide on my knees across the floor. Which may explain why my knees hurt now. When I got my first job he told me to never miss work and keep moving up. When I got married he told me to always go out with my husband and never go out separately. He said never hold grudges, forgive and forget. He always spoke of the passing of his mom which brought tears to his eyes. He always spoke about his childhood and all the mischievous things he did. These last couple of weeks he reminded me of the wonderful life he had and the fun things we all did together as a family. He always said my mom was the love of his life and couldn't live without her. My dad was a strong man even when in pain. He worried about all his kids and loved us all equally. He wanted the best for us all. He would do anything for us and my mom. There is so many memories that I'll always cherish and never forget.
