“ Sorry for your loss. With the loss of a family member where there are so many left behind , don't forget what the Bible says for times like these. Most importantly , pour out your grief in prayer. Also, talking to others (as David did) or putting you feelings in writing (as Samuel did) can help. Remember you are sharing the loss of your loved one — everyone grieves differently, at their own pace and in their own way. Always remember you are in the prayers of friends and family. God is the God of all comfort and will provide you with the comfort you need in this difficult time.
