“ We are sadden to hear about the loss of your mother. Her footprints will forever be in our hearts. Rosie was such a bright presence. Always greeting everyone with a smile. We had the opportunity to sit and talk to her a bit at Devyn's wedding she was full of joy, smiles, and pleasantry. She will be deeply missed.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family on the of your sweet momma. Rosa, first and foremost I want to say thank you for loving my brother's and welcoming them into the family when we had lost our mother within a couple of years of Raymond meeting Jeanette. The love you showed my two younger brothers was that of a mother. And that meant so much to me, as I knew they needed that love. Not many do what you did. Always showing love to all never judging. I will remember your sweet laughter and sense of humor. Thank you for treating us like part of the family. We will miss you dearly.

“ Rosie was an incredible person who touched the lives of everyone around her. As I got to know her over the years, I was struck by her remarkable qualities - her strength, wisdom, kindness, and generosity. She was a 'woman of valor' in every sense, managing her household with excellence, being a diligent businesswoman, and trusting in God. Despite battling cancer, Rosie's spirit remained unbroken, and she continued to inspire those around her with her courage and faith.

“ Barbara Benedetto
Words can't express the sorrow that we are feeling right now. My sister Rosie was an amazing Soul, she was always there for you no matter what time or day , you could call her and she would always answer her phone. I'm so happy she had the opportunity to come to Phoenix to visit my family. We all had a great time catching up. I will miss you dearly especially when I come home to visit the family. I know you are with our Heavenly Father in his Beautiful Kingdom. And our family awaiting for you to come thru the Pearly gates of heaven. What a Blessing to see her big smile as she walks thru and has our family there to greet her with smiles of my sisters and brother and Dad and Mom and our Grandparents and the rest of our families will be there to see her smile coming thru. I will miss you so much, but you will always be in my heart and in my dreams and in my thoughts always.
LOVE YOU MORE THAN YOU KNOW SISTER. LOVE YOU FROM YOUR BABY SISTER 🌹 🙏

“ I miss the way you’d tell me like I was the most beautiful person in the room, even on the days I didn’t feel like it. You had this gentle way of saying it—like you truly meant it, like it was something you saw in me without effort. Now, when I get dressed or catch my reflection, I still hear your voice telling me I’m beautiful... and somehow it doesn’t sound the same without you here. I’ll always try to feel it because you said it & you made me feel like god saw me that way too. I still miss my “hi nanas” and my goodnight kisses but I mostly miss how this single smile lit up a whole room. You were my light, this day and everyday for three years. Now you light up my heart & the sky. I miss you naners. Forever imprinted on my existence.

“ I remember when she was so proud of Alexis and me for making a no-yeast pizza recipe. She whispered to me to write it down, lock it away, and start my own pizza business in Japan because she thought Japanese people didn't know about pizza. 🍷🔍🍕🇯🇵
