“I never realized till recently that I always called her My Aunt Rosie.... Now that i'm older I think I understand why I said it that way. When I was with her and Travis, I got their full attention. They took such wonderful care of me. I loved her sweetness and Travis was one of the most wonderful men I have ever been blessed to know. They were a pair. Her soft voice and cute lil laugh, how she would blush when you got her to laughing hard. I got to spend a lil time with her before she passed and I told her, that she should never wonder how loved she was on this earth because I have loved her my whole life. She will be missed indeed but she leaves me with many great and happy memories. I believe that everyone should have an Aunt Rosie in their life. Someone who adores and teaches with tenderness, who makes you feel that you are amazing and special. Thank you Aunt Rosie and I love and miss you.

“ Although I was not technically related, she was always and always will be my Aunt Rosie, who was such a sweetheart to my family and I. I so enjoyed my visit with her last weekend and am so thankful that I got to see her one last time. And I know that Uncle Sonny is grinning ear to ear now that they're reunited. Love and prayers to her family and loved ones.
