

Rosalio Cano

October 12, 1973 - April 9, 2022

Rosalio Cano entered eternal rest on April 9, 2022, at the age of 48. Rosalio, better known as Lio, was born on October 12, 1973, in San Antonio, Texas.

Lio is loved and will be missed by his many family members and friends. Lio was preceded in death by his father Jeronimo Cano. Left to cherish his memories is his wife of twenty-four years Loretta Munoz; children Rosalio Cano Jr., Desiree Cano, Stephanie Cano; granddaughter Novva Garcia; mother Petra Cano; siblings Jerome Cano, Gabino Cano, Kathy Cano Rodriguez, and Elida Cano. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Lio was well known for his amazing tasting bar-b-que. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends celebrating where he could show off his cooking skills. Whether he was grilling on the pit, putting a brisket in the oven or deep frying a turkey or wings, you could usually find him in the backyard wearing a Cowboys or Spurs shirt working on a project. Lio loved cooking for his three children who inherited his strong will, determination and independence.

“ So not sure if my message was posted as my internet sucks. Reminds me of the time at the Chinese buffet in Alexandria, VA when you yelled at the workers because they said your money was a little ripped and they couldn't accept it. So you yelled back and told them their mango no good here in a Chinese style slang.. Regardless it was one of those time you just have had to been there. No matter the situation, you sir always made it the best. We grew up our whole apprenticeship together, I even remember the day you turned out. We were at Fort Sam and that same day you were late, no worries though because you brought me my tacos and big red. But you gotad at me because I called Brad, and said you are a journeyman now and you should be running work. I can go on and on with you, Roland, Jay, Kirk, ,Rudy, Max, Jaime, Eli, Greg, etc..... This list is endless. That time we were working in a parking garage almost fought Jeff to the time we were all up here in Maryland and sticking together as family because the locals wanted us out. You were there to shave my Mohawk when the Saints lost to the cowgirls back in our superbowl run of 2009. If anyone ever needed something no matter the issue, you never hesitated to help. I love you Rosey, thanks for being a brother!

“ Lio was a great and crazy guy..I have had the pleasure of knowing Lio thru my husband Roland, I can tell you he would give the shirt off his back to help some one, no matter who they were.He loved his kids and Lori, and also loved to have a great time..shoot I would always have to put a missing persons report on my husband when they would hang out together. I am at ease that Roland got to hang out with him one last time. May Lio rest in eternal peace. Again, my condolences to his family and may God give you the strength thru this most difficult time.
