“ Dear Family of Lee,
I wish that we could turn back the clock and figure out a way to have kept Ummer and Umper's extended family in touch with each other. It seems we only realize we have missed those opportunities when it is too late! Lee, my mom (Margaret) and your mom (Dorothy) shared many moments in life, and as a young child, I felt you and Gordon were a part of my extended family because of those moments.
For all the missed chances, I apologize. And for your family, please know that I pray that each of you will find courage, comfort, and peace as you grieve for his loss. And that God will welcome Lee into everlasting life with Him.
Your cousin,
Linda (Grohman) Murphy
