Rose was a devout Catholic, and servant to her Lord Jesus Christ, she was a parishioner of St. Henry’s Catholic Church for over 40 + years; a Eucharistic Minister, a member of the Charismatic and prayer group leader, member of the Guadalupanas, she studied theology at Oblate, Notre Dame, , attended School of Evangelization in Pensacola Florida and attended numerous religious conferences, made home visitation to the elderly for many, many years, she was also member of COPS organization.

As a mother and grandmother, she instilled the catholic faith the “true church” as she would remind us and was quick to teach the word. She faithfully read her bible and recited her rosary daily.

Everyone was welcomed at her humble home; during Christmas she made sure to have a gift for all her grandchildren and extended grandchildren. She taught us that giving was a true blessing. Her legacy will live on through each of her children, grandchildren, great- grandchildren and great-great granddaughter. Her family will miss her enormously, but we know and believe as she taught us that we will be united again in God’s Kingdom-Heaven.

“ Fernando and to all of the family - Here at the Catholic Center for Charismatic Renewal, Rosie is fondly remembered as a 'legend' of sorts. Moved by the Holy Spirit she was instrumental in the early days of the Charismatic Renewal in San Antonio. A leader, a prayer warrior, a woman after God's own heart. 'La Sala Alta Prayer Group' that she helped get off the ground (1980's) and that she led for many, many years is still strong and active today. That, brothers and sisters, is a legacy; a legacy for which we are forever grateful. We can be assured that she has now heard the words that all of us desire to hear one day: "Well done, My good and faithful servant."
