

Rosemarie "Fritzi" Rush

March 26, 1924 - November 9, 2014

Rosemarie "Fritzi" Rush went to be with the Lord on Sunday, November 9, 2014 at the age of 90.

Rosemarie was born March 26, 1924 in Lyons, Indiana.

She moved to San Antonio in 1956 after losing her husband, Vincent F. Rogers in the Korean War. San Antonio quickly became home, she always spoke fondly of her friends and the job she held at Robert B. Green for many years.

She loved to laugh and always had a joke or a funny story to tell. Rosemarie spent her life caring for her family, her pets and always cheering for "her Spurs".

She was preceded in death by her parents, Nora and Luther Duncan; her adoptive parents, Charles and Lucy Fritts; sisters, Marguerite Pogue and Helen Lutes; her brother, Lexie Duncan; her loving husband of 32 years, Edward F. Rush; and her son, Terry F. Rogers.

Rosemarie is survived by her granddaughter, Buffy Guzman and husband, Desi; grandson, Bryan Rogers and wife, Jennie; great grandchildren, Kylie, Zane, Isabella, Zachary, Alexander, Desi and Olivia; and numerous extended family members.
