“ While Mrs T is not with us any more. Thats not what I wanna remember. I remember the look on her face when we sat across from her at the dining room table at Marie and Sams house while she was enjoying her pastelitos and or pan dulce. Every crumb on the plate. The concentration and determination to get that last bite or little crumb.Or sitting at Bill Millers eating lunch. Enjoying her sandwich. Or her fiestiness when Marie tried to go one way pushing her chair and Mama T wanted to go the other way. So funny. RIP Mrs T. Will miss your smile and your fiestiness.

“ We were neighbors for over 8 years. My daughter and grandchildren enjoyed her company. My grand daughter now in the Marines always asked about her. I went to Burbank with Raul and Sam. After I retired from the military by chance we became neighbors and friends. We will miss her forever. Love her.

“Grandma Rose was our light and love. Her will and feisty nature kept us all on our toes. Her laughter filled the room with happiness and joy, and her presence was always a delight. She was deeply blessed with a family that would move mountains for her. There wasn't anything she wanted for. We took pride in spoiling her rotten. Grandma loved her donuts, pastries and developed a love for pizza, or “peesa,” as she called it. Olive Garden lost their #1 fan, and we lost our #1 mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and matriarch. We will love you forever grandma. I can't wait to see you and run into your loving arms again. Dear lord and Grandpa Trini in heaven, your vacation is over;)”
