“ *Mary Lou,
I am so sorry for your loss; you and your husband were two of the kindest people I have known; I am sure you don't remember me; we met at Sacred Heart Villa over twenty years ago; but I still remember you and how empathetic you were when I lost my "papa"; God be with you at this difficult time.

“ My precious adopted Papa... I cherish each memory hanging with Liz and you and MaryLou, getting together before the Spurs games at Champions, visiting your home with the pictures of your family all over the walls, and seeing you both when you visited Austin. You made such an impact on me with your intelligence, compassion, friendliness, acceptance, and mostly, your sense of family. The look in your daughter's eyes as she speaks of you all these years says it all to me. Rest in Peace, Papa.
