Celebrating the Life of Rosie Lomas A Life of Love, Music, Family and Service

Rosie Lomas was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, caregiver, and friend whose kindness and generosity touched countless lives. She was deeply involved in the lives of her children and grandchildren, and was known for always caring for others with love, strength and compassion.

She had a passion for jazz and dancing and proudly participated in dance groups, parades, festivals and community events throughout the years. For more than 30 years, she worked at the Alamodome and Convention Center where she was greatly loved and admired by coworkers who became like family.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Trinidad Cedillo, stepfather Joe Cedillo and father Manuel Perez.

She is survived by her children, Melanie Villarreal, Bernard Lomas and Salina Lomas as well as numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, extended family members and dear friends

Visitation will be held Sunday, May 31, 2026 from 1 PM to 4 PM with a prayer service beginning at 2:30 PM

“ As a supervisor for many years Rosie was a true pleasure to work with and I'm blessed to have gotten to know her over the years. A very giving, genuinely caring lady. Shared many laughs during our friendship.
