“ Roy's unwavering service to the San Antonio Firefighters Benevolent Fund will always be remembered! He and Betty dedicated countless hours the Fund by maintaining rosters, keeping records, processing scholarship applications, serving at hosted receptions, performing secretarial and executive duties, and participating in other numerous activities of the Fund. He will be deeply missed. RIP Brother. You did well in life, now enjoy the treasures of Heaven!

“ Roy was a loving servant of Our Lord Jesus Christ and always had a heart of gold and a word of encouragement. He was a good friend and brother firefighter and will never forget his leadership and Christian commitment to me and many others. Will never forget our trip to a Promise Keepers Convention in Bolder Colorado. Enjoy your rewards in heaven, you deserve them. “ well done good and faithful servant.”
