“ Roy will be missed. I worked with him at HEB #9 for many years. My children called him Uncle Roy. Roy would get after me but he did that to teach me what I needed to continue my career.

I knew Roy from back in the days of when he was the Store Manager @ HEB#9. I worked with Nabisco servicing his store. He was serious at times but always seem to make me laugh.

“ My condolences and prayer to the Garcia Family.
Roy and I were good friend.
We worked as stockers at H-E-B South Park Mall back in the early 70's. I used to stop by and see him at stores he was managing when I started Grocery Sales. I just found out today about his passing. Also, work with his brother Ernie.
God Bless and a good Friend from Houston.
