“ I first met Roy in our Training Class at Southwestern Bell Yellow Pages, in March of 2001. Back then the training was quite extensive and lasted eight weeks so we all got to know each other really well. During our first year together, Roy out sold everyone in the group, it seemed like from the very beginning we were always chasing to keep up with Roy.

He was a great guy, full of life and funny stories. I don't know of anyone I've ever met in my life that loved the Dallas Cowboys as much as Roy. After he left AT&T we continued to stay in touch, primarily by phone. It was always a joy to bs with him about sports, life and politics. I miss those conversations more than you'll ever know.

Roy deeply loved his children as only a father can, and would always have something good to say about his grandson Jaxon. Rest in peace my brother. Rest in peace.

“ My dear cousin Roy, It breaks my heart to know I can't call you anymore on my way home from work when I've had a bad day. You always made me forget the negativity and make me laugh. I'll never forget when you asked me Hey Chris, did Peaches really run all the way to Austin to your Moms house? OMG....that was priceless. I'm going to miss you so much, but until we see each other again. Rest in Peace and give my Aunt Betty a big hug. Love you

“ We had tons of great memories as kids. I loved when mom would pack up the car to head from Austin to SA to see my Aunt Betty and my cousins. You would call Austin the island of pegipegi, only us cousins know the meaning behind that. You made me laugh loud and often. I hope you've seen my brother by now if so I'm pretty sure the laughter continues. RIP cousin.

“ Roy, we started off as friends, then became best friends and then became brothers. We shared so many memory together. I remember the wife's use to say we cared more for each other then them. We use to speak on the phone every day and see each other on the weekend for many years. I miss those days. As our families grew we had less time on our hands and weren't able to talk or see each other as much as we wanted. As we got older our conversations were more about family, instead of all the crazy stuff we used to talk about when we were younger. Even though we did not talk or see each other that often, you were always in my heart and I love you my brother. When we see each other again my brother, we can talk about about those crazy days again. R.I.P. my brother. Your friend, your brother always.....Cruz

“ My dear friend Roy. We have been friends for over 30 years. We spent a lot of time together while we both worked at Big Red. Our friendship grew to where we became more like family as our daughters grew up together. I will cherish all the years we knew each other and will miss those conversations we had whether it was about Dallas Cowboys Football or about our kids and how proud we are on all they've accomplished. Until we meet again.. Go Cowboys.

“ My friend,

*I said a prayer for you
to thank the Lord above
for blessing me with a lifetime
of your tenderhearted love.*

*I thanked God for the caring you've shown me through the years,
for the closeness we've enjoyed
in time of laughter and of tears.*

*And so, I thank you from my heart
for all you've done for me and I thanked the Lord for giving me
the best friend there could be.*

You will forever be in my heart.
