

Roy Martinez

October 1, 1966 - March 20, 2009

On Friday, March 20, 2009, the Heavens rejoiced as they welcomed their Brother Roy Martinez into their Kingdom. Roy was born October 1, 1966 in San Antonio, Texas. He now joins his father, Matilde Martinez and mother-in-law Carol Delgado. Roy is survived by his loving wife of twenty-two years, Barbara and the ultimate joy of his life; his son Roy, Jr., mother Romana Hernandez and father-in-law Dr. Richard Delgado, sisters; Lucia Hernandez Eusebio, Bertha Garza Martin, Tina Contero Rodolfo, and Debra Delgado, brothers; Joe Martinez Anita, Enrique Martinez and numerous nephews and nieces. He was a 1985 graduate of South San High School and was employed at Kelly Air Force Base for twelve years and later worked in the Information Technology Departments at Titan Insurance and his current employer: JP Morgan Chase. He enjoyed golfing, fishing, bicycling, basketball, baseball, football, dancing and traveling. He was an avid San Antonio Spurs and Dallas Cowboy's fan. He was an active parishioner of Holy Name Catholic Church, Head Coach for Holy Name C.Y.O. Boy's Basketball and Assistant Coach for the Holy Name C.Y.O. Boy's Baseball Teams, and a member of the Holy Name A.C.T.S. community. He was very active with the Holy Name Catholic School serving on the PTC School Board, Assistant Baseball Coach, and always searched for ways to help improve the education of the students. Roy had a great love for all of the players he coached throughout the years; he treated them as though they were his own. He was a great inspiration to all before, during, and after his courageous battle with cancer. He never gave up on his strong faith and lived his life to the fullest. Above all he was a wonderful husband and father who always placed his Lord and Family first. He will be greatly missed by all. Special thanks and gratitude to Dr. Arun Rao and his staff for their many efforts and compassion. Also to the staff of S.E. Baptist Hospital for their wonderful care.
