

Roy Rendon, Jr.

June 1, 1970 - May 23, 2010

Roy Rendon, Jr. went to be with the Lord on Sunday, May 23, 2010 at the age of 39 years. A lifetime resident of San Antonio he was born June 1, 1970. Roy was a Master Electrician working for Home Depot for the past two years. He also served his country for 5 years in the US Navy. Roy loved motorcycling, spending time at the lake, and being with family and friends. He is survived by his parents, Roy Rendon, Sr. and Gertrude Pacheco, his sister, Josephine Poore and her husband Tony, his loving and devoted wife, Candice Logan and his loving son Jacob Ryan Rendon, his beloved dog "Tater", as well as numerous aunts, uncles, and other loving family members and friends. He will be missed but will live forever in our hearts.

“ Candice,
Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just remember you and your family are in our prayers.

*May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared,
comfort you now and in the days ahead.*
