“ My sincere condolences you Daryl and your sister Lisa. Roy, Irene and I shared back to back yards for over 43 years. During that time we shared many stories and experiences during our backyard meetings. These past few days are a bit different when I walk out my back door knowing your dad will not be joining me for a talk. He was an ideal neighbor to me. I pray that he and Irene are back together in heaven. God bless my back door neighbor Roy Hill and may he be resting in peace.
