

Ruben M. Ybarra

May 19, 1938 - December 1, 2024

Ruben Monreal Ybarra, lovingly known as “Roob” to friends, was born on May 19, 1938 in La Coste, TX. At time of passing Ruben was 86 yrs old on December 1st, 2024 and lived in San Antonio, TX. He is survived by his loving children: Sandra (Pete) Martinez, Patricia (Richard) Cordova & Rueben Joseph Ybarra; sisters Olivia Cordoba and Dora Glover; granddaughters Vanessa Martinez and Valerie (Richard) DeLuna; grandson Justin Cordova; great-grandsons Alex Martinez, Cristian Martinez & Bentley Martinez. He is preceded in death by his parents-Domingo & Dolores Ybarra and siblings Nina Gonzales, Aurora Sanchez, Victoria Roberts, Mary Alice Bosmans, Raul Ybarra and Jesus Ybarra.

Ruben was very proud of being a US Army Veteran, serving some time in Korea and was honorably discharged. Ruben was also a member of the US National Guard Reserve and thereafter retired from Kelly AFB after 31 yrs as an aircraft foreman. His strength, dedication and leadership skills are a big part of why & how he accomplished so much.

Ruben enjoyed fishing, cruising around town in his Corvette and all kinds of sports. His booming voice could be heard and identified without a doubt whether an active participant; cheering on his son, granddaughters, grandson or great grandsons from the sidelines; or supporting his favorite teams such as The Washington Redskins, LA Lakers & Texas Tech University from his recliner. Because of Ruben's outgoing friendly personality, he would often walk through a door of a restaurant/store and hear someone yell out "hey Roob!".

The family wishes to thank the staff at Changing Seasons for the compassion and care they showed our beloved family member.

Ruben will be dearly missed by all who knew him.
