“ Mrs. Edwards never failed to seem pleased to see me and always offered a welcoming hug. I will miss her friendly smile, but know that she is using it today in a much better place in the presence of her beloved Lord and Savior.

“ The only mother I ever really knew. What a wonderful, godly woman. I am so thankful to God for putting her in my life -- He knew I would need to know the things she taught me. She was truly the Proverbs 31 woman and will always live in my heart.
