“ I have wonderful childhood memories of our visits to aunt Ruby & uncle George 'out in the country'. Her home was so inviting & the kitchen smelled of yummy fresh-baked food. She always had a smile on her face. RIP my dear grand-aunt Ruby!

“ I cherish the time we spent together the last few years of your life and I will always remember you walking around outside, watering the flowers and feeding the cat. You are happy now...no more pain, with loved ones who have gone before and watching over us all from heaven. We will miss our sassy, outspoken matriarch but will smile when thinking of you and the long life you had. Rest in Peace...Grandma💜.

“ Mom, you no longer have to ask about Dad because I know you are with him again. What a reunion that that must be. Thanks, Mom for always loving me and for teaching me how to be a mother.

Love, Linda

“ I grew up living next door to Grandma and Grandpa Gunn. They aren't related to me by blood, but they were definitely grandparents to me. They both always greeted me with sweet smiles and warm hugs when I visited. They shared stories from the olden days and enjoyed hearing about what was going on in my life. Growing up I visited with them at least once a week. Grandpa Gunn passed before I had children, but I'm thankful that my kids met and got to know Grandma Gunn. They too enjoyed visiting with her when we came to San Antonio. Rest In Peace Grandma Gunn. You will live on in our hearts and memories until we meet again. Love you.
