Ruby Inez Tabbert, 88, of San Antonio, passed away on Saturday April 6, 2013. She was born on December 15, 1924, in Muldoon, Texas, to the late James Henry and Scottie Lou Ivy Null. She was a member of St. Marks United Methodist Church. On May 30, 1945, Ruby married the love of her life, Louis Tabbert. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Louis, and several brothers and sisters.

Ruby is survived by her two sons, Larry Tabbert and wife Rhonda of Austin, and Keith Tabbert of San Antonio; four granddaughters, Lisa Doster and husband Kelly of Kerrville, Ashley Murphree, Samantha Tabbert and Jessica Tabbert; one grandson, Geoff Tabbert; six great-grandchildren, Kelsey, Kourtney and Keller Doster, Logan Murphree, Aiden Ritch, and Connor Ritch; one sister, Lexie, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Always adventurous, after completing high school Ruby moved from Pearsall, TX to the "big city" of San Antonio. Soon after arriving in town she took a job working at Sears & Roebuck on Romano Plaza and after a few years moved on to become an operator for Southwestern Bell. It was while working for the phone company she met Louis at Broadway Bowling Alley on a girls night out. After a short courtship they were married and Louis and bowling remained an important part of her life for almost fifty years.

After her boys were born she remained a stay at home mom where she busied herself with PTA, teaching Sunday school and charitable undertakings like the March of Dimes until the youngest was in school when she went to work for USAA where she worked her way up to become an underwriter. She retired from USAA after over twenty years of service.

Ruby will always be remembered as a loving and generous person that greeted everyone with a warm and sincere smile. She often opened up her home to friends and relatives traveling through San Antonio and started off their day with her radiant smile and a hot cup of coffee.
