CASIAS

Light A Candle

Light a candle for those we mourn. Into a new life they will be born. Do not look for them at the gravesite.

They are somewhere else radiating their beautiful light.

They have gone to a new world where there is no darkness, no pain.

Their light and essence will always remain. Light a candle for those who have left this mortal place. They are free to travel through time and space. When we think of them, they are near.

When we sit in a beautiful garden. Their voices we hear. When we listen to a divine symphony, we close our eyes, their faces we see. Light a candle for they have not really gone.

With each flickering flame, in your hearts they will always belong.

Rudy M. Casias went to be with the Lord on Friday, October 29, 2010 at the age of 76 years. He will be joining his beloved and devoted wife of 46 years, Elodia V. Casias. Rudy was born in San Antonio, Texas on October 30, 1933 to Ramon and Julia Machado Casias. Rudy served his country for over 35 years in combined service in the US Army and civil service, retiring as a machine shop supervisor. Rudy was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Jimmy Casias. He is survived by his children, Diana Pearl Casias, Rodolfo Casias, Jr. and wife Patti Maness-Casias, Paul Ray Casias, Debora C. Hall and husband Greg A. Hall; sister, Lillie Hoyos, brothers Raymond Casias and Fred Casias; grand-children Jarrett Renee Hall, Greg A. Hall II, Hope Crystal Elizabeth Casias, Jassmine Ivy Casias, and Devin Micheal Casias, as well as numerous nieces and nephews and other loving family members and friends.
