“ Russell knew how to genuinely spread love and make everyone laugh. Even before we started dating he would always make sure I was ok. One time I had to run to my truck that was parked super far and Russ just stood up and walked with me, no questions asked. That’s the kind of care and love everyone should spread. The most amazing man I’ve ever met and Im blessed to have had him in my life. We were always playing and laughing. Thank you Russ. ”

“ Russell had a smile for everyone. I don't ever recall a summer when I was young that I wasn't greeted by that big smile coming off this small boy with big ears. He will always be that little guy to me even though he sprouted up to tower over me. I will miss you Cousin. Rest easy Russell. I hope to see that smile greet me again one fine day.
