“ One Christmas I paid a visit to Ruth and brought some presents with me. Thinking her dogs would like a treat I got a few cans of premium gourmet pet food. She told me her pantry was full of that stuff cause her dogs get nothing but the best every day.

“ I was glad to have met Ms Ruthie and her sister Ms Judith several years ago after their house fire. They were renting a house on Yuma St ,which was the place I started to work as a handyman/ landscaper. We loved making fun and disagreeing with our president. I could count on Ms Ruthie for scores on Spur's games and we would go wild when play off time arrived.. Wow she was so HAPPY when Houston Won the World Seires... Thanks for the great times MsRuthie. RIP you will be missed but Not Forgotten..
