

Ryan Eric Haugen

September 12, 1977 - March 5, 2017

Born September 12, 1977, Died March 5th 2017.

After graduating high school Ryan joined the US Army, and spent 8 years involved in the military police and medic fields. This is also where Ryan received his training for Radiologic Technologist. He continued building on his career learning Computed Tomography in Kansas City, Pittsburg and ending in San Antonio at Methodist Healthcare system. Ryan chose to be an organ donor, continuing to give to those he helped through his career. His greatest passion was running and pet rescue.

Ryan is survived by his daughter Zakira of Houston, Texas, mother Darla of Minneapolis, Minnesota, brother Travis (Amanda) of Anchorage, Alaska, girlfriend Clara McKenna and her daughter Melanie of San Antonio, many aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins and special friends, and 2 beloved rescues Gunner and Luna. He was preceded in death by his father Pete.

Burial will be held at Ft. Snelling in Minnesota at a later date.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Suicide Prevention or any Pet Rescue Center.
