“ Growing up with you was the BEST!! Sometimes it may have not seemed like it, but you were my best friend. We got to do so much together, grow together, and we were there for each other in so many ways. Even though we would have our small fights (like sisters do) we knew we ALWAYS had each other's back. You are dearly missed my little sister and I PROMISE YOU....I will continue to watch over your kiddos and your grand kiddos. I LOVE YOU AND WILL MISS YOU TREMENDOUSLY, but until we meet again RIP.

“ I remember I met Salina when my father had his church called New Life Harvest in San Antonio TX. Salina loved the Lord and her family! She was always so cheerful and happy and gave the sweetest hugs when you saw her. Salina was funny and charming with such a sweet soul. She will be forever missed but we know she is Well and Good in the presence of The Lord Jesus Christ.
