

Sally G. Lozano

December 29, 1922 - May 12, 2010

Sally G. Lozano, born December 29, 1922 in Leming, Texas, went to be with her Lord and departed husband on May 12, 2010. She loved her children dearly and was a family oriented sister, wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. The majority of her life was devoted to her children and to John, her husband of 68 years. Her career as a homemaker allowed her to pursue her passion for antiques. Because of her love for antiques she began a small business at the Ironside Antique Mall in San Antonio. Her hobbies consisted of oil painting, shopping and her children and grandchildren. In her earlier years, she and John enjoyed dancing in all surrounding towns. Now she dances in the stars with her beloved husband. She had a heart of gold and will be dearly missed by everyone who knew her and loved her. Sally is survived by her children: son, Johnny Lozano and wife Norma of Rockport, TX; daughter, Tonie Gutierrez and husband Richard of San Antonio, TX; son, Roy Lozano of New York City; son, Ruben Anthony Lozano and wife Terri of San Antonio, TX; her grandchildren: Robert, Patricia, Rosemary and Laura Lozano; Marie and Rick Gutierrez; Lisa-Michelle, Leanna-Monique, Larissa-Marie, Lexus-Miranda Lozano as well as 10 great grandchildren.
