

Salvatore G. Zinna

February 11, 1947 - July 26, 2020

Salvatore Zinna lovingly known to his friends and family as “Sal” sadly passed away peacefully on July 26, 2020 at the age of 73. Sal was born in Queens, New York on February 11, 1947, mother, Maria Zinna and father, Emmanuel Zinna and was one of four brothers. Sal is survived by his wife, Jenny Zinna, his son David Zinna and his daughter Dawn Daily.

Sal was best known for his knowledge in plumbing where he became a Master Plumber and from there went on to establish many successful businesses. Sal felt that through hard work, taking pride in who you are and what you do that anything can be accomplished. Many of us turned to Sal for guidance and looked to him as an example of what a person of humble beginnings can become.

There are many things that will forever stand out in our hearts as we remember Sal. Just to mention a few, his love of working on his Lamborghinis, his property and spending time with his family and friends. Sal was a quiet man but his actions and mannerism has made a mark in our hearts that will never be forgotten.

Sal, til we meet again “Shalom”

“ *Our hearts are so full right now. Jenny, Daniel and I are keeping you and the family in our prayers. Sal was such a sweet and gentle man. He came to the office back in March and we had an opportunity to sit down and share a laugh together with some of his funny stories. He also shared with me some of the things that he wanted to do around the house for you. May his soul rest in peace.

“ Uncle Sal. The funniest and most vivacious person in this family. The person everyone looked forward to seeing. His disco grooving energy radiated the entire room and you had no choice but to gravitate towards him. As an entrepreneur, father, brother, and husband he was full of love and was the epitome of a strong-willed Italian. We will forever miss you, Uncle Sal. We all love you.

Love,
Ash Z.

“ Sal,
I will miss your laughter and your easy going manner. I will miss the time that we spent together. I will miss so many things. I am grateful for the time that we did get have together. I don't quite understand why God chose this particular moment in our lives to call you home and it's hard but I'm sure there is a reason and in time I know the pain will pass. Thank you for all that you have given me. Shalom!!!

“ My best memory of my Dad was in St. Martin, when we would get ready in the morning to go to the ocean, we both would swim together, float in the water. I would tell him this is the life Daddy, and a huge smile on his face, he would say this is my favorite place. I loved alone time with him, he was so funny he made me laugh all the time. I will miss getting our lotto tickets on our trips to see my brother, he would always win and said i was unlucky, Lol. I love and miss you Daddy forever.
