“ I only met Sammy a few times when I worked at Methodist Hospital. He was always so friendly and spoke of his family often. He was a favorite with the nurses and staff at the hospital. He will be greatly missed.

You are in my prayers.

“ Natalie & children: I met Sam only a few times when he visited Leti, my daughter & Jake, my most beloved son-in law. Sam had a smile that would make all those cancer victims forget their illness. When my husband passed away with this same terrible illness

“ Natalie, Crystal and kids,
I am so sorry! It seems so unfair because he was just a few years older than me. If there is anything you all need, please call.
My family sends there love and prayers.
