

Samuel Nathan DeViney

December 22, 1925 - September 13, 2007

Samuel Nathan DeViney, Sr., 81, the only son of three children born to Samuel A. and Ella W. DeViney, died peacefully September 13, 2007. Sam proudly served his country aboard the USS Chicopee during World War II and proudly served San Antonio for over 30 years as a journeyman electrician and power plant overhaul foreman for City Public Service. He loved babies and animals and the rugged beauty of far west Texas; he was an avid hobbyist and always had a deep curiosity for the mysteries of earth science, creation and God. His loving survivors include Alice Atnipp DeViney, his wife of 57 years; four children: daughter, Annette DeViney Owens, son, Samuel N. DeViney, Jr., daughter, Laurie Michele Gifford and her husband, Craig, and son, Tracey Alan DeViney and his wife, Grace; six grandchildren: Thomas W. Owens, III, Kathryn Annette Reynolds and her husband, Charles, Christopher Edward Gifford and his wife, Heidi, James Emerson Gifford, Michele Elizabeth Gifford and Grace DeViney; and three great-grandchildren: Charles Christian Reynolds, Olivia Kathryn Reynolds and Madeline Louise Gifford.

“ Alice, I was so sorry to hear about Sam. I just recently read the notice online, and of course recognized a family member right away. If my memory is correct didn't some of the family call him "Sonny-Boy"? I saw his notice right next to John's notice in
