Samuel will be greatly missed by his wife and children, Rosalie Alfaro, Diana Carreon, Cynthia Sutterfield, Sonia Kelly, his grandchildren, Aaron and Vanessa Alfaro, Jonathan Carreon, Anna Sutterfield and Christopher West.

How we remember you

There are certain people that pass through this life
There are certain people that make their mark
And there are certain that impact others...that is you

The way you carried yourself...light and easy going
Often humorous and uplifting
You found something good to smile about everyday

Your caring heart was felt without speaking a word
Sometimes it was just that magnetic smile and the twinkle in your eye
Often it was the sincere and thankful gestures for the smallest of favors

Your sweetness sometimes came with an edge...abrupt at times
You also knew when you should be compliant
Mom made sure of that

Your hard work and thoroughness was evident in all that you did
You were meticulous in all things
Even at getting your bath...often you would surface blanched

The simple pleasures in life is what thrilled you the most Reading and having your solitude was important to you Watching the boats at Medina Lake....or sitting and wondering why there were no boats

Music was your passion...Mambo, Salsa, Big Band
Your talents were not only in your dance moves
You could whistle the sweetest of melodies...like a song bird

Not only were you talented...but you were extremely handsome
You and your beautiful bride made an exquisite couple
In your prime you both looked like movie stars...straight out of Hollywood

You always managed to keep everyone entertained
Your stories and contagious laughter was infectious
You could even entertain yourself...and you did.... quite often

You enjoyed your food immensely

Especially your steak...you left it for last and savored every bite
Everyone sitting with you would share in the experience.... along with you

Most of all you were loved
You were the King of our life
You were pampered....and cherished by us...the women who loved you

One woman should be noted here
The apple of your eye...your Bride
She was your first and forever girlfriend

You will be missed by many
Most of all by your best friend...the one that called you "honey bunny"
Your one and only Love

These are memories collected by the family, thank you Sonia for putting these special memories so eloquently for us to cherish.
