December 23, 1974 - December 13, 2016

San Juanita Jimenez, age 41, went to be with the lord on December 13, 2016. She fought a long and uphill battle with pancreatic cancer that ended in her new home, with her family and friends by her side. She was born in Laredo, Texas on December 23, 1974. After moving to Corpus Christi, Texas at a young age where she grew up and later attended Richard King high school in 1993. The first year of her long career working for Visionworks began as a lab technician where she worked her way up to become a general manager in San Antonio.

All her life, San Juanita devoted her life to her children, hard work, and her faith. She is survived by her son and daughter, Shawn and Demi, her husband Thomas, and sister, Josie (Mike Cortez) as well as a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, and friends whose life she touched. My mother loved the Lord and will watch over and protect us, forever. I love you, Mom.

“ My sweet Tia . You were like a second mom to me. You were an amazing aunt to my kids. I know you loved them and they love you dearly. He smartest most devoted Catholic I know. You made sure everyone was ok and always put yourself last. You were so selfless in your ways. It's hard talking about you past tense. Sometimes when I'm sleeping I catch myself talking to you in my dreams. You were such an amazing mom I was always wanting to be half the mother you were. I know in my heart you are with the lord, we lost an aunt/mother/best friend/wife, but the lord gained something more . He gained a submissive angel. I believe that is why the lord needed you Tia he needed who you were everything you strived to be in the last years. You were so young and oh very beautiful. Some nights I still cry I'm sure every holiday will be just as hard as we always tried to plan what we were going to do to make it special for the kids. You always had the best ideas. I will miss our talks , of faith, kids, family, relationships , life.... You along with my mom and kids are such a treasure I will forever hold near and dear to my heart. I will see you one day, my Christian faith has me believing that and I don't doubt it for a second. Be waiting at the gates Tia. I'm sure your running things up their already like a boss . I love you.

“ My sweet Janie, you will be missed by many. You touched the lives of countless amounts of people and you had a smile that was contagious. The way you cared for your kids, and everyone around you inspired me to be a better person. I have never met anyone who was as loving, caring, and patient as you. I promise to take care of Shawn and guide him in the right direction. I will love him unconditionally as you always did, and be here for him whenever times get hard. You will always live inside of me! I love you, Janie.
